March 2015 Uni-Verse

Service Schedule

March 1: My Artistic Journey with Member Colleen McCall Join us as Colleen shares how art shapes her life and her spiritual journey. She holds an MFA in Ceramics from Alfred State and a BFA in Studio Art from Truman State University and has studied at the University of Georgia at Athens, as well as in Corcoran College of Art and Design. She has also exhibited across the US and in Italy and is recipient of several awards, fellowships and grants. Service Leader: Corey McCall

March 8: Evolving Together with Rev. Darcey Laine ~ This Sunday we join with congregations around the country for "Evolution Weekend" giving voice to the compatibility of scientific and religious truth. This year we explore the complex web of relationships in which beings evolve. Taking time to understand this interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part can be a humbling and awe-filled experience.

March 15: Local and Organic Food for Low Income Families ~ UU Members and owners of Muddy Finger's Farm, Matt Glenn and Liz Martin, will explain how local and organic food has a reputation for being out-of-reach to low-income families. They will talk about available options that families can take advantage of to get fresh nutritious food while also supporting local farms. Service Leader: Jeni Paquette

March 22: Solstice and Equinox with Member Ron Telford ~ Ron will discuss the role of Solstice and Equinox in world religions. Service Leader: Chris Telford

GARBAGE DREAMS

On the outskirts of Cairo, residents of the world's largest garbage village collect 4,000 tons of trash per day, recycling nearly all of it.

But when multinational waste collection corporations threaten the community's survival, three teenage boys born into the trash trade are forced to make difficult choices about their futures.

Second Place East Donation Reminder

MARCH: laundry detergent
APRIL: paper towels

This list is also posted on the donation box at the Fellowship. Picking up an item or two when you are out shopping is a great way to keep costs down at the Home Shop; you can save by shopping at Dollar General and Big Lots.

FUN STATISTICS: In 2013, the Shop assisted 86 families, including 115 adults and 62 children. In 2014, we assisted 103 families, including 152 adults and 138 children. While many of our clients, formerly homeless moving into new housing, are single adults, there are also many families with children as well.
Thank you! ~ Marcia Allen
