Feel Like Going Green?

Now that the holidays are over and everything outside is white - and the seed catalogs haven't arrived yet - you may be ready to do some on-line research about a new project the UUF BF Board is considering creating a new worship space on our property like the one that the Sugarloaf Congregation in Germantown, Maryland did. Type these links in your browser and check it out! <http://www.scuu.org> And while you're there check out all the other UU congregations that have made a commitment to going green and reducing global warming where they worship at <http://uuministryforearth.org> Anybody out there want to join a group in Big Flats to explore these ideas? Let Tamara know. Thanks!

The iconic Sunday Afternoon on the Grande Jatte, Georges Pierre Seurat's most famous painting, altered the direction of modern art by initiating Neo-impressionism.
